

Addition and Subtraction Unit 6

Problem solving and reasoning questions

Write one more than each of these numbers

15          51          70          17          99

---

True or False?

- (i) Adding 1 to a number ending in 6 always gives me a number ending in 8
  - (ii) A number ending in 9 is always 1 less than a number ending in 0
  - (iii) Adding 1 to a number always gives us an answer with 2 digits.
-

Start with 85.

Say the number one less.

Say the number one less.

Keep going until you say a number which does not begin 'eighty....'

---

Write the number one more than....

12                  22                  32                  42

One more than any number ending in 2 is a number ending in

Write the number one less than....

12                  22                  32                  42

One less than any number ending in 2 is a number ending in

These questions should be provided for children to do once the unit has been completed. They assess the children's mastery of the skills and concepts in this unit.