

Focus: I can plan positive changes to a local environment and can explain how these changes will help living things within the area.

Draw a birds-eye view of the area. With your group, discuss how to change the space to make it better and add these details to your own plan. Label your plan, and write brief notes about why you are making the changes – which living things will benefit?

Resources and tools that I will need: