

Water Transport in a Plant

1. Look at the plant below.
Add arrows to show how water travels through the plant.
One has been done for you.

2. There are four sentences below, but only one is correct.
Tick the box next to the correct sentence.

Plants take in water through their leaves.

Water travels through a plant's flowers before it goes through the stem.

A plant's roots take in water from the soil.

Water travels down a plant's stem to the roots.

Write a correct version of the three sentences that are wrong.

.....

.....

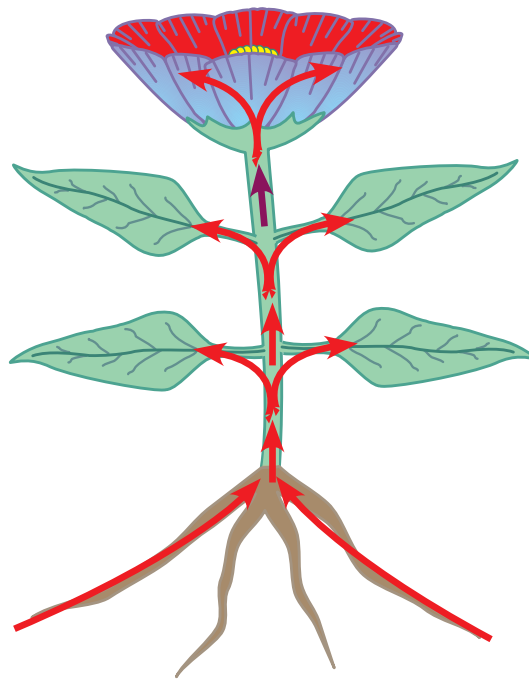

.....

Water Transport in a Plant

Answers

1. Look at the plant below.
Add arrows to show how water travels through the plant.
One has been done for you.

E.g.

2. There are four sentences below, but only one is correct.
Tick the box next to the correct sentence.

Plants take in water through their leaves.

Water travels through a plant's flowers before it goes through the stem.

A plant's roots take in water from the soil.

Water travels down a plant's stem to the roots.

Write a correct version of the three sentences that are wrong.

E.g. Plants take in water through their roots.....

Water travels through a plant's stem before it goes through the flowers. Water travels up a plant's stem to the leaves..