

Non-Fiction

Read the text and answer all the questions.

Kiwi

Kiwi are endemic to New Zealand. This means New Zealand is the only place they are found. Kiwi can't fly. They live on the ground and nest in burrows. Kiwi lay huge eggs. They are laid inside the burrow. Kiwi come out at night time. They look for food such as worms and insects. Kiwi are famous for their long beak. They tap this as they walk. They can smell a worm under the soil. They push their beak in to get the worm. Kiwi have long thin feathers. They have very strong legs. They use these to dig and to protect themselves. Kiwi are in danger of dying out. They are a protected species because of this.

1. Find and copy the word that means kiwi are only found in New Zealand.

.....

2. Which of these statements is true?

- Kiwi are found in Australia
- Kiwi cannot fly

- Kiwi live in trees

- Kiwi come out during the day

3. Why are Kiwi protected?

.....

4. Kiwi lay huge eggs and they are famous for their long beak.

Underline adjectives in the above sentence.

5. Complete the sentence using adverbs.

Kiwi lay _____ huge eggs.

Kiwi are famous for their _____ long beak.

6. Sort the nouns into the correct groups.

| | | | |
|----------|------|------|-------------|
| feathers | Kiwi | beak | New Zealand |
|----------|------|------|-------------|

| Common noun | Proper noun |
|-------------|-------------|
| | |
| | |