
Instructions: Read each question carefully and choose the correct answer.

1. What is a software license?

- A) A piece of paper
- B) A set of rules that tells you how you can use software
- C) A type of computer

2. Which of the following is an example of freeware?

- A) A game that you can download and play for free
- B) A game that you have to pay for before downloading
- C) A game that only some people can play

3. What does open-source software mean?

- A) Software that can only be used by one person
- B) Software that has its source code available for anyone to see and modify
- C) Software that is very expensive to buy

4. Why do software developers use licenses?

- A) To make their software look pretty
- B) To tell people how they can use their software
- C) Because they have to

5. What does proprietary software mean?

- A) Software that is owned by a company and can't be modified or shared
- B) Software that is free for everyone to use
- C) Software that is very old

Bonus Question (Optional):

Can you name one software program you've used before and guess what type of license it might have?

Answer: _____