

Find the preposition

In pairs identify the preposition and underline it.

Now find the phrase that it introduces and highlight it.

Check that the main clause makes sense on its own without this phrase.

The cat ate her breakfast in the kitchen.

After breakfast, the cat washed her paws.

The cat purred because of the warm fire.

Before heading out, the puppy wagged her tail.

The puppy chased the ball under the bush.

The puppy barked due to excitement.

During the storm, I watched them play.

I fed the animals for some peace and quiet.

I took the puppy for a walk on the heath.