

L.O: To identify conjunctions, main clause and subordinate clause in sentences.

Identify the conjunction and tick one box in each row to show whether the underlined clause is the main clause or subordinate clause.

| Sentence | Conjunction | Main Clause | Subordinate Clause |
|--|-------------|-------------|--------------------|
| I paid the driver when I got on the bus. | when | ✓ | |
| Because it was raining, I took my raincoat with me. | because | ✓ | |
| When she had eaten her lunch, she walked for an hour. | when | | ✓ |
| The cave was dark and damp which made me shiver with fright. | which | ✓ | |
| Dad sat on the bench while the children played in the park. | while | | ✓ |
| Although the daffodils have died, they will grow again next spring. | although | ✓ | |
| I get headaches whenever I eat cheese. | whenever | | ✓ |
| As the clouds cleared, Zain left for work. | as | ✓ | |
| After the lights went out, the cat left the house. | after | | ✓ |
| Even though it was snowing, she enjoyed her bowl of ice cream. | Even though | | ✓ |

Match the clauses to the most appropriate subordinate conjunction to create a full sentence.

1. She decided to help her mum fix the car.

while

Dad vacuumed the muddy hallway

2. The school play was a roaring success

although

the lead actors were poorly that day.

3. He wasn't friends with Ahmed anymore because he knocked him over and didn't say sorry.

Challenge: Rewrite one of the sentences using conjunction at the start.
