

The Sand Horse, pages 5 and 6

He went to the beach. He marked out his pitch, put his hat down on the sand, and started work.

First he fetched water from the sea. He splashed some onto the dry sand. He patted and moulded the sand.