

Ideas for Book Comments

You are going to write down some comments about your favourite of the two John Burningham books you have heard in class, using the present tense for your verbs.

If you are stuck for ideas, see if you can write a comment describing what you like about...

1. The book's main character
2. The other characters in the story
3. What happens in the story
4. The pictures in the book

