

Fill in the blanks with the correct past perfect tense verbs and write your new version of the poem inside the dinosaur picture provided.

Dino's Day Out

In the land before our time,
A dino lived who loved to climb.
It _____ (to explore) the valleys wide,
Before the night _____ (to arrive).

It _____ (to munch) on leaves so green,
Before the other dinos _____ (to be) seen.
It _____ (to roar) with all its might,
Before the stars _____ (to light) the night.

By a lake, it _____ (to rest) its feet,
Before the ice _____ (to greet) the heat.
And when the moon _____ (to rise) so high,
This dino _____ (to say) its sleepy "goodbye."

Term: I
Session: 2023- 2024

Name: _____
Date: _____

Challenge Task: Write your own short poem following the pattern of past perfect tense verbs, like "Dino's Day Out."