

World Record Wonders: Fill in the blanks with Conjunctions

Since Although Because Whenever While

1. _____ Miss Angela Frail of Woking traveled alone, she would often leave her umbrella on public transport..

2. Jimmy Fluff became a record holder..... the judge found the other competitor guilty of cheating.

3. Eliza Widdershins was the most hopeless daily help she broke a complete tea-service and threw the wrong item into the dustbin.

4. Titus Wellington stood in the water of the Manchester Ship Canal for 835 hours _____ the weather was unusually warm for April.

5. The longest strip of postage stamps was bought by Mr. Adam Senilitude of Old Sarum _____ he used all his coins for that purpose.

6. _____ there's a centipede to be counted, Dr. Mibsby is always ready with his magnifying glass.

7. Ron Fudge of Idaho, who balanced a banana on his nose for 27 days in 1928, holds the banana-balancing endurance record _____ it was a test of patience and skill.

8. Miss Felicity Parminter-Lloyd, _____ short-sighted, never lost an opportunity to rescue a stray cats from the streets.

Look at the picture of the O'Shaunnessy family from Tipperary walking on a tightrope. Write a sentence to describe what is happening and use the word 'because' or 'while' to tell us why it is interesting or unusual.

O'Shaunnessy family from Tipperary walked across the tightrope.....
.....
.....