

- Halogens: the elements in Group VII of the Periodic Table.
- Halide: Compound containing an ion formed when a halogen atom has gained an electron to complete its outer shell of electrons.
- Diatomic: Molecule containing two atoms.

Halogen Displacement Reactions

Displacement: a more reactive halogen will take the place of a less reactive halogen from its compound.