

I. Choose the correct answer.

/3

1. Giraffes and zebras both have fur . Fur is similar to hair. Animals that have fur is called _____.

- a. Mammals
- b. Habitat
- c. Feathers
- d. Adults and babies

2. These children are identical _____. They look the same because they have inherited the same characteristics from their parents.

- a. Siblings
- b. Twins
- c. Fingerprint
- d. Parents

3. How can we keep your body healthy and strong ?

- a. By eating junk food
- b. By sitting still all day
- c. By exercising and eating healthy foods
- d. By watching TV all day

4. How do animals grow and change as they get older?

- a. They stay the same size.
- b. They shrink
- c. They grow bigger and learn new things
- d. They disappear

II. Write true or false:

/5

1. All animals look the same when they are born as they do when they grow up.

2. Eating too much junk food is healthy for you. _____
3. Animals can inherit characteristics from their parents. _____
4. Brushing your teeth only once a week is enough to keep them clean and healthy. _____
5. Eating sugary foods and drinks can cause cavities in your teeth.

III. How will the baby chick change as it grows? Think and answer in 'Yes' or 'No'. (2 points)

- a) The baby chick will grow longer feathers. _____
(Yes/No)
- b) The baby chick will lose its feathers. _____
(Yes/No)
- c) The baby chick will grow a beak. _____ (Yes/No)
- d) The baby chick will lose its beak. _____ (Yes/No)

IV. Observe the picture carefully. Circle the pictures that show healthy habits for caring for our teeth. /3

V. Emma wants to learn about different animals. Which activity should she do to compare animals? /2

Ahmed: "I think chimpanzees are like humans because they act similarly when they get older."

Abdullah: "I think elephants are like humans because they live a long time and have big families."

1. Who is right and justify your answer ?

VI. Illustration : Draw 2 example of healthy food and unhealthy foods. Explain the differences of it. /4

Healthy Foods	Unhealthy Foods