

Smart Farming

Producing and managing farm through agriculture applications and technology for precise data collection and to increase quantity and quality of harvest .

