TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

At Lyceum International School (Private) Limited, we have been dedicated to providing quality education for the past 30 years. With our school network spanning across several districts in Sri Lanka, including Pre-Primary Education, we aim to mould global citizens who will shape the future of our nation.

Ms. Fathima Rushdha Kamaldeen (EPF No. 8450), served the organization from 28th August 2017 to 08th April 2022 in the capacity of a Teacher.

During her induction at Lyceum International School, Nugegoda, she acquired a thorough understanding of the teacher code of ethics, staff code of conduct policies, professional duties, school policies, institutional culture, curriculum, assessment guidelines, and human resources policies.

Ms. Fathima Rushdha Kamaldeen's enthusiasm for teaching was evident in her interactions with students and created an engaging learning environment. Her teaching methods to meet the diverse needs of her students and her flexibility in adjusting lesson plans based on student feedback are impressive. Ms. Kamaldeen's willingness to reflect on her teaching practices and seek constructive feedback demonstrates her commitment to continuous improvement. She also engaged in peer observation in order to observe their classroom practices and exchange ideas for improving teaching techniques. Throughout the supervising and mentoring journey, she was identified for her unwavering enthusiasm for teaching and learning. Not only has she attended the weekly Professional development sessions, but she has also used those sessions in her teaching practices in a very satisfactory manner. Her commitment to improving her teaching practices is commendable.

This letter has been issued at the request of Ms. Fathima Rushdha Kamaldeen and based on feed back received from her mentor Ms. Madhavi Kalhari Thilakarathna (Head of the Department - Art).
