Class Teacher's Comments

Maya Raashid is a student with great potential. She shows creativity in the Arts and Craft Club and has the ability to contribute meaningfully to class activities. While she participates in the STEM project, Trash to Treasure: Turning Plastic into Fuel, Maya has the capability to excel when she engages more. She would benefit from taking part in classroom discussions and building stronger connections with her classmates. With a more positive attitude and increased involvement, Maya will continue to grow and achieve success in both academics and social interactions.
