Class Teacher's Comments
Haaniya is a reflective learner who shows significant growth by reflecting on feedback and making notable progress. During discussions, she is attentive to instructions and actively considers her peers' ideas. Her considerable curiosity is evident through her research skills, particularly when working on projects related to carbon emissions during the Youth Leadership Programme. To boost her confidence and further enhance her academic achievements, it is recommended that she actively engages in class discussions and group activities. Congratulations! Promoted to Year 5.
