Class Teacher's Comments
Muhammad Umar is a responsible and enthusiastic learner who can perform leadership duties such as leading the group and assisting members to achieve their goals. His contribution during the Youth Leadership Programme on the study of bullying around the world played a significant role in facilitating effective research and presentation efforts. His involvement in creating a Scratch project to showcase the impact of bullying was commendable. However, he is encouraged to improve his problem-solving skills by analysing real-life solutions. Congratulations! Promoted to Year 6!
