Class Teacher's Comments
Haroon is a confident and an engaged learner who actively participates in class discussions. He has great potential and can achieve even more with increased focus and interest in his studies. He has improved his critical thinking skills, which were evident during YLP sessions. It is recommended that he shows responsibility by checking his work before submitting it to avoid careless mistakes. Additionally, it is recommended that he listens to instructions more carefully before beginning his tasks, which will help him complete his tasks in a better manner. Congratulations, Haroon! You have passed the exams and are promoted to Year 2.
