Class Teacher's Comments
Doha is making commendable efforts and is evolving as a progressive learner, with notable growth in confidence during the YLP, where she passionately explored global challenges. However, she often needs reminders to stay attentive in lessons and ongoing supervision and direct assistance with assignments. Continuous guidance and encouragement are crucial to help her maintain focus and complete tasks independently and punctually. It is recommended that she practices spelling and handwriting to enhance her foundational literacy skills. Well done, Doha! You have passed the exams and are promoted to Year 2.
