Class Teacher's Comments
Fatima has made significant progress this term, evolving into a confident learner. Her newfound confidence, particularly evident in her research work during the Youth Leadership Program, should be viewed as a catalyst for further growth. It is advised that she delves into article reading and contemplates different logical problem-solving approaches. The displayed dedication is truly commendable. Fatima is promoted to class 4. Congratulations to Fatima on successfully passing the class. I wish her continued success and fulfillment as she embarks on this new academic journey.
