Class Teacher's Comments
Taha is a confident and engaged learner. His work in class is of good quality that shows a proficient understanding of the concepts covered. He has a clear enthusiasm for his schoolwork, and executes his assigned responsibilities well even outside the class as a student council member. He has shown great confidence during YLP by presenting his research work well. His achievements in competitions especially the Scratch Sprint and International Kangaroo competitions are commendable. To improve his skills further he should practice more critical thinking questions. Congratulations! Taha is promoted to Year 5.
