Class Teacher's Comments
Reem has been a creative and innovative learner throughout the year. Her work during YLP demonstrated good research and excellent visual presentation skills. She works well both independently and in group settings, and becoming a more active participant in class discussions will help her grow further. She is recommended to revise the material covered in Year 4 to solidify her understanding, and to read more widely which will help expand her comprehension and critical thinking skills. Congratulations Reem! You are promoted to Year 5.
