Class Teacher's Comments
Throughout the year, Affan has been a confident and eager participant in class, as well as in a number of external competitions such as the Scratch Programming Competition and the Qatar-e-Nature competition. His work during YLP was of very high quality, demonstrating good teamwork and excellent research and presentation skills. However, he can sometimes become distracted in class, which can prevent him from consistently achieving his highest potential. During the summer, he is recommended to spend time exploring more challenging concepts and reading widely. Congratulations Affan! You are promoted to Year 5.
