Class Teacher's Comments

Nabiha is a highly engaged learner, who works well with her classmates in group settings. She shows responsible behaviour and treats school property and the belongings of others with care and respect. Her active participation and project work in the Youth Leadership Program was highly appreciated. However, she is encouraged to strengthen her research skills through reading and share her knowledge and new findings in class to further develop self-confidence. Congratulations, she is promoted to Year 3!
