Class Teacher's Comments
Meerab is a reflective learner, who has made some progress this term, and it is important to recognize her efforts. She can improve further with additional practice and support. Encouraging Meerab to set small, achievable goals can help her experience more success and build her confidence. Although she faces challenges academically, her positive interactions with classmates and her respectful behaviour are strengths that will support her overall development. Her confident participation in Youth Leadership Programme is admirable. I hope she will continue to work hard in the next academic year. Congratulations, she is promoted to Year 3!
