Class Teacher's Comments

Shaheer is a reflective learner who has shown significant growth in both his academic skills and personal development. He is becoming more responsible and is starting to take ownership of his learning. His hard work and commitment are paying off, building a solid foundation for future success. His engagement during the Youth Leadership Programme is highly appreciated. However, he often seems a bit tired during lessons. While his contributions are always valuable, more active participation would further enhance his learning experience. Congratulations, he is promoted to Year 3!
