| Manahil is an independent learner. She has a great work ethic and is always eager to complete school assignments at the earliest. She is always respectful towards her peers and teachers that contributes to a positive classroom environment. She actively takes part in co-curricular activities and takes the ownership to complete projects within stipulated time. I recommend her to focus on writing skills to eliminate any spelling or grammatical error. This will help improve the overall quality of her assignments. Congratulations on being promoted to Year 6. | |
